

Karina Flonnoy (Outrageous Karina) is a 26 year old recording artist, engineer and songwriter from San Jose, CA. She stepped foot in a studio for the first time at 16 to record music that she had been writing since 9 years old. She's released 2 Mixtapes, 2 EPs and several singles since. Her music has been featured on Worldstar Hip-Hop, Young Money's Official Site and recently in the season 3 premiere of Freeform TV's hit show "Grownish." She had her single "Good at This" played on the Bay Area's biggest urban station 106.1 KMEL for about 6 months with no radio budget or outside help.

In 2016 she graduated Diablo Valley College with an Associates of Arts Degree in Music Industry Studies. She's Avid Certified in Pro Tools. After she graduated she started running recording sessions at the studio she recorded her own music at. Since then, she's been a freelance Audio Engineer based in the Bay Area, CA. She's worked with over 100 artists over these 4+ years. She recorded and mixed Mistah Fab's album "Cuban Cigars and Rose Champagne." She has been one of his main engineers over the past 3 years.

She co-wrote a song on Goapele's "Dreamseeker" album called "Take it Over." She's currently engineering and creating music for herself and others.
